

chapter 30 revolution nationalism pdf

Lih and Conrad reject this long-established view. They argue that there was in fact no significant difference between Lenin's democratic dictatorship of the proletariat and peasantry, on the one hand, and Trotsky's permanent revolution, on the other, and that Lenin therefore did not have to change his views or wage an internal struggle to realign Bolshevism toward socialist revolution.

Permanent Revolution

Nationalism is a political, social, and economic ideology and movement characterized by the promotion of the interests of a particular nation, especially with the aim of gaining and maintaining the nation's sovereignty (self-governance) over its homeland. Nationalism holds that each nation should govern itself, free from outside interference (self-determination), that a nation is a natural and ...
